THE BYLAWS OF BAINBRIDGE ISLAND ROWING

Article I: General Provisions

Section 1. Name

The name of the Corporation shall be Bainbridge Island Rowing Club, doing business as Bainbridge Island Rowing (BIR).

Section 2. Purposes

The mission of BIR is to build community through rowing and serve the West Sound region. BIR supports recreational, fitness and competitive rowing goals for members by providing outstanding coaching, equipment, and facilities in a welcoming, collaborative, and respectful environment.

This Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and this Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the IRS code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1952 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

Section 3. Location

The Directors may establish offices and places of business of the Corporation in Washington or elsewhere, as they deem proper.

Section 4. Fiscal Year

Except as from time to time otherwise determined by the Directors, the fiscal year of the Corporation shall end on the last day of December of each year.

Section 5. Duration

The Corporation shall have perpetual existence.

Article II: Board of Directors

Section 1. Powers

BIR will be governed by a Board of Directors (Board). The Board shall exercise all the powers of the Corporation which are not expressly reserved to the members by law or these Bylaws.

The Board can appoint, employ, oversee, control, supervise, fix compensation for, discipline, and discharge all officers, contractors, or employees.

Section 2. Size

The Board will consist of a minimum of seven and a maximum of seventeen Directors voted on by the membership. While all Directors are expected to take a broad view of the organization, not less than one-third of serving Directors shall represent Adults (members beyond high school age) and not less than one-third shall represent Juniors including at least one Junior rower (members enrolled in the high school rowing program). Up to two "at large" Directors may be appointed by the board.

Section 3. Term of Office

Directors shall serve a term of two years, without limit to the number of terms served. Terms shall be staggered so that approximately one-half of Directors stand for election at every annual meeting.

Section 4. Election of Directors

BIR members shall elect Directors at the annual meeting of members by a majority vote of attending members.

Section 5. Vacancy

Any vacancy in the Board may be filled by a vote of the Board at any meeting of the Board. The person filling such vacancy shall serve for the balance of the term of the Director whose office is being filled.

Section 6. Resignation and Removal

Any Director may resign by delivering his/her written resignation to the Corporation at its principal office or to the President or Secretary. Any Director may be removed from office by the affirmative vote of a majority of the BIR membership in attendance at an annual or special meeting.

Section 7. Regular Meetings

The Board shall establish the dates, times, and location of its regular meetings at the beginning of each year and so inform the membership via the BIR website.

Regular meetings of the Board may be held without further call or notice. All regular meetings of the Board and its committees shall be open to all members and invited guests.

Section 8. Special Meetings

The Board shall provide notice of any special meeting to the membership. Such notice shall be posted on the BIR website and distributed to members no less than five business days prior to the special meeting and shall state the time and place of the meeting.

Section 9. Emergency Meetings

Notwithstanding the foregoing sections, the Board may meet without providing notice to members in order to take an emergency action. An emergency action shall be limited to those actions, which, if not performed immediately, create an imminent danger or risk to persons, property, or finances.

Section 10. Remote Participation

Members of the Board, members, and invited guests may participate in meetings by means of conference call (or other electronic means).

Section 11. Action by Unanimous Written Consent

Any corporate action required or permitted by the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, or by the law of the State of Washington, to be taken at a meeting of the Directors of the Corporation, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing or by electronic means, setting forth the action to be taken, shall be signed or otherwise acknowledged by all of the Directors entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote and may be described as such.

Section 12. Manner of Acting

The act of the majority of the Board at a meeting at which a quorum is present (a majority of the then-serving Directors) shall be the act of the Board and shall decide any matter, except in the instance where these Bylaws or State law shall conflict.

Article III: Officers and Executive Director

Section 1. Officers

The Officers of the Board are the President, Vice President(s), Secretary and Treasurer. The election of Officers shall be by the Board, annually at the first Board meeting after the annual meeting at which Board members are elected. Each Officer shall hold office for the entire term and until his/her successor shall have been elected and qualified unless the Officer resigns or is removed from office. No Director shall hold more than one office.

Section 2. President

The President shall, subject to the direction and control of the Board, be the principal executive officer of the Corporation; shall supervise the activities of the committees and of the Board; shall sign deeds, leases, mortgages, contracts, or any other instrument that the Board authorizes to be signed; shall preside when present at all meetings of the members and the Directors; and shall have such other powers and duties as the Board and the membership shall designate.

Section 3. Vice-President

The Vice-President shall act as President in the absence of the President and, with the President, sit as an ex-officio member of every committee.

Section 4. Treasurer

The Treasurer shall, subject to the direction and control of the Board, have general charge and custody and be responsible for the financial affairs of the Corporation and shall keep full and accurate books of account. The Treasurer shall have custody of all funds, accounts, and deposits of the Corporation.

The Treasurer shall prepare and submit for Board approval an annual budget.

The Treasurer shall disburse or cause to be disbursed the funds of the Corporation as may be directed by the Board, taking proper vouchers, receipts and accounting for such disbursements.

The Treasurer shall render a statement of the financial affairs of the Corporation on a monthly basis to the Board, and to the membership at each annual meeting of the members.

Section 5. Secretary

The Secretary shall give such notices of meetings of members and the Board as are required by these Bylaws and shall keep a record of all the meetings of members and the Board. The Secretary shall have custody of all valuable documents of the Corporation.

Section 6. Other Officers

The Board may appoint such other Officers or agents as it deems necessary. Such appointments shall serve such term(s), have authority, and perform such duties as may be prescribed by the Board.

Section 7. Executive Director

An Executive Director may be hired by, and serve at the pleasure of, the Board. Under the direction of the Board, the Executive Director directs, implements, and coordinates the operation of BIR as prescribed by the Board.

Article IV: Members

Section 1. Diversity and Inclusion

BIR is fully committed to creating a diverse and welcoming environment that includes and attracts employees and community members with diverse backgrounds, heritage, and experiences. The more diverse we are, the better we reflect and serve the community. All are welcome.

Section 2. Membership

The privilege of membership is extended to anyone interested in and supportive of BIR and its mission. Membership dues must be paid in full for membership privileges.

Section 3. Membership Privileges

Voting Rights

Members have the right to vote on matters affecting the Corporation at meetings of the members.

Property and Facility Use

Members shall be entitled to use BIR property and facilities consistent with policies enacted by the Board.

Section 4. Membership Withdrawal

Memberships may be suspended or revoked by the Board for failure to pay dues or fees, failure to provide waivers or other prerequisites, or inappropriate conduct. The Board will notify a member of its intentions to suspend or revoke membership in writing, and, based on the reason for withdrawing membership, offer to the member an opportunity to rectify the deficiency. The Board shall be authorized to waive such suspension or make other arrangements on a case-by-case basis.

Section 5. Meetings of Members, Quorum, Majority

The annual meeting of the members of the Corporation shall be held in the first quarter of every year, at a time and location determined by the Board.

The purpose of the annual meeting is to elect a Board.

Notice of the annual meeting setting forth the date, time, and place of the meeting shall be posted on the BIR website and distributed to members not less than thirty days prior to the date thereof. Such notice will contain a description of the general nature of the business to be transacted.

Ten percent of the membership of BIR shall constitute a quorum, but a lesser number may without further notice adjourn the meeting to any other time.

At any meeting of the members at which a quorum is present, the vote of a majority of those present shall decide any matter, unless a different vote is specified by law or these Bylaws.

The President or the Board may call special meetings of the members at any time. Additional meetings shall be called upon the written request of five percent or more of the members. A notice of special meetings of members shall be posted on the BIR website and distributed to members at least five business days prior to the date of the special meeting.

Section 6. Resignation

Any member may resign, without refund or other recourse, at any time by written notice to the Secretary of the Corporation.

Article V: Standing and Special Committees and Appointment

Section 1. Executive Committee

The Executive Committee shall be a standing committee that consists of the Officers and others appointed by the Board. The Executive Committee shall steward strategic direction and spending, oversee routine operations as needed, develop Board meeting agendas, and make recommendations to the Board. The Board may delegate authority to the Executive Committee to make some decisions on legal and other matters. The Executive Committee shall prepare a record of decisions made and apprise the Board at the next Board meeting.

Section 2. Safety

The Safety Committee shall be a standing committee of BIR and shall meet at least once a year. This committee shall be chaired by an Officer. The Safety Committee will annually review the BIR Safety Guidelines and recommend changes as appropriate to the Board.

Section 3. Development

The Development Committee shall work on the development of strategic capital, equipment and scholarship needs. The Board President shall appoint the chair(s) of this committee.

Section 4. Disbursement of Funds

Committees shall have the ability to authorize the disbursement of funds within a budget set by the Board to perform their duties as defined by the Board. No committee may disburse funds for purposes outside of its charter of duties.

Section 5. Disbursement Reporting

Committees that disburse money must report to the Board both monthly and annually.

Section 6. Other

Other committees and appointments shall be created by the Board as need may arise. All committee chairpersons shall provide a written report to the Board prior to the annual meeting to provide continuity of activities.

Article VI: Property

Section 1. Title

Legal title of all property and assets of BIR shall be in the name of BIR.

Section 2. Private Property

Private property may be kept in BIR owned or operated facilities with the permission of the Board and in accordance with a written storage and use agreement which shall indemnify, release, and hold harmless BIR. Such property shall not be used without the permission of the owners.

Section 3. Property Use

All BIR property is for the benefit of members and the community as outlined in BIR policies/agreements.

Section 4. Damage

Members shall be responsible for the use of BIR property. Damage (and injury) must be reported to the Board. Members shall be liable for damage resulting from gross negligence or reckless behavior unless excused by the Board.

Article VII: Policy, Working Rules, Regulations, and Guidelines

Section 1. Policies

The basic policy, working rules, regulations, and guidelines shall be established by the Board and shall not be in conflict with the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws. Policies, working rules, regulations and guidelines will be posted on the website for member access.

Section 2. Waiver of Notice

Whenever any notice is required to be given to any Director or member of the corporation by the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, or by the law of the State of Washington, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be the equivalent of giving such notice.

Section 3. Indemnification

Each Director and Officer, and by resolution by the Board employees, now or hereafter serving the Corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, and his/her representative, executors, and personal representatives, shall be indemnified by the Corporation against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him/her in connection with the defense of any action or suit except in relation to the matters as to which he shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for gross negligence or misconduct in the performance of duties. Such indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such person may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, vote of the Board or Directors, or otherwise.

Article VIII: Uniform, Flag, and Blades

The Board controls and determines all uses of the BIR name and designs such as logos, uniforms, promotional materials, and club colors. Any such uses shall be consistent with and to the benefit of the purposes of BIR.

Article IX: Amendment and Adoption of Bylaws

Section 1. Amendment

These Bylaws may be amended or repealed, in whole or in part, by vote of sixty-seven percent (67%) of the members present at a meeting of members provided that the substance of any proposed change is stated in the notice of the meeting at which such action is to be taken.

Section 2. Date of Adoption

The Board of this Corporation pursuant to the Articles of Incorporation duly adopted these Bylaws on
